1. This opinion contains indications relating to the following items:

- ☒ Box No. I Basis of the opinion
- ☒ Box No. II Priority
- ☐ Box No. III Non-establishment of opinion with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability
- ☐ Box No. IV Lack of unity of invention
- ☒ Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement
- ☒ Box No. VI Certain documents cited
- ☐ Box No. VII Certain defects in the international application
- ☐ Box No. VIII Certain observations on the international application

2. FURTHER ACTION

If a demand for international preliminary examination is made, this opinion will usually be considered to be a written opinion of the International Preliminary Examining Authority ("IPEA"). However, this does not apply where the applicant chooses an Authority other than this one to be the IPEA and the chosen IPEA has notified the International Bureau under Rule 66.1b(b) that written opinions of this International Searching Authority will not be so considered.

If this opinion is, as provided above, considered to be a written opinion of the IPEA, the applicant is invited to submit to the IPEA a written reply together, where appropriate, with amendments, before the expiration of three months from the date of mailing of Form PCT/ISA/220 or before the expiration of 22 months from the priority date, whichever expires later.

For further options, see Form PCT/ISA/220.

WRITTEN OPINION OF THE INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.
PCT/US2005/033707

Box No. I Basis of the opinion

1. With regard to the language, this opinion has been established on the basis of the international application in the language in which it was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item.
 - ☐ This opinion has been established on the basis of a translation from the original language into the following language , which is the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (under Rules 12.3 and 23.1(b)).
2. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of:
 - a. type of material:
 - ☐ a sequence listing
 - ☐ table(s) related to the sequence listing
 - b. format of material:
 - ☐ in written format
 - ☐ in computer readable form
 - c. time of filing/furnishing:
 - ☐ contained in the international application as filed.
 - ☐ filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
 - ☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority for the purposes of search.
3. ☐ In addition, in the case that more than one version or copy of a sequence listing and/or table relating thereto has been filed or furnished, the required statements that the information in the subsequent or additional copies is identical to that in the application as filed or does not go beyond the application as filed, as appropriate, were furnished.
4. Additional comments:

Box No. II Priority

1. ☐ The validity of the priority claim has not been considered because the International Searching Authority does not have in its possession a copy of the earlier application whose priority has been claimed or, where required, a translation of that earlier application. This opinion has nevertheless been established on the assumption that the relevant date (Rules 43*bis*.1 and 64.1) is the claimed priority date.
2. ☐ This opinion has been established as if no priority had been claimed due to the fact that the priority claim has been found invalid (Rules 43*bis*.1 and 64.1). Thus for the purposes of this opinion, the international filing date indicated above is considered to be the relevant date.
3. Additional observations, if necessary:

see separate sheet

Re Item II. Priority

For the present application a right of priority is claimed that is based on the national US American application 10/943344 dated 17.09.2004.

The subject matter of the present application is also the subject of the international application WO2004US015196 (filing date 13.05.2004, International publication number WO2004/101809).

Therefore the the national US American application 10/943344 dated 17.09.2004 cannot be considered as a first application for such subject matter in the meaning of Art.4 (C) of the Paris Convention. According to Art.8(2)(a)PCT the conditions of Art. 4 of said Paris Convention apply in establishing whether a right of priority can be recognised under the provision of the PCT. Consequently, for reasons set out before, as the subject matter of the present application is already disclosed in WO2004/101809 no right of priority can be recognised that is based on the national US American application 10/943344 dated 17.09.2004. WO2004/101809, published 25.11.2004 is therefore considered as being prior art for the present application.

Re Item V.

1 Reference is made to the following documents:

D1: WO 2004/101809 A (ISIS PHARMACEUTICALS, INC; HOFSTADLER, STEVEN, A; CUMMINS, LENDELL, L) 25 November 2004 (2004-11-25)

2 NOVELTY AND INVENTIVE STEP (Art. 33(2) PCT and Art. 33(3) PCT)

2.1 D1 discloses a method of isolation of a nucleic acid amplification product from a solution comprising one or more electrospray incompatible reagents (p. 2 last par., p. 8 par. 2) comprising mixing said solution with a magnetic bead linked to an anion exchange functional group, isolating that magnetic bead from solution by application of a magnetic field and the removal of said solution (p. 6 l. 26-32), washing said bead with wash buffers (p. 7 par. 1), and eluting the amplification product with an electrospray compatible buffer (p. 7 par. 2). D1 discloses as well a corresponding automated liquid handler for dispensing and aspirating liquid (p. 8, par. 2), as well as the use of a 96 well plate for holding the mixtures (p. 8, par. 3). D1 consequently discloses a system comprising said technical features as well as a kit comprising a 96-well plate, an anion exchange functional group linked to a magnetic bead, a wash solution and an electrospray compatible buffer (s. above and claims 32,36 and 42). D1 thus discloses all the technical features of the independent claims 1, 13 and 15 in combination.

- 2.2 In the light of D1 dependent claims 2-12,14 and 16-23 do not appear to contain any additional features which, in combination with the features of any claim to which they refer, meet the requirements of the PCT in respect of novelty (Art. 33(2) PCT).
- 2.3 In the light of D1 claims 1-23 are not novel in the sense of Art. 33(2) PCT and consequently also do not meet the requirements of inventive step (Art. 33(3) PCT).
